

Alison W. Colvin

Alison W. Colvin was born and raised in Houston, Texas. She started her career as an Associate at the Houston office of the firm of Fulbright & Jaworksi L.L.P in the Health Law Section. She is currently an Associate with Colvin, Chaney, Saenz & Rodriguez L.L.P in Brownsville, Texas. She specializes in civil defense trial work including personal injury, products liability and commercial litigation. In her rare spare time, she enjoys hunting, fishing, traveling, running and golfing with her husband Trey. She is currently on a mission to make one of her children, Taylor (age 5) or Marshall (age 3) a professional golfer or at least a college golfer. She has one hope left (Rider-who will be born in August). She has been actively involved in the Cameron County Young Lawyer's Association and Cameron County Bar and has spent significant time organizing the Monica's House Annual Toy Drives for CPS children and is a Board Member of Girls on the Run, a non-profit organization that promotes health, fitness and self-esteem in young girls.

She has held Director positions in the Cameron County Young Lawyer's Association, Cameron County Bar Association, Texas Association of Defense Council and has been on the Women and the Law Council for over 4 years. She was chosen as a Texas Rising Star for 2012 and 2013. Her passion for achievement is never-ending and she is constantly looking for new and innovative ways to promote the legal profession and women in the law.
